

Some app suggestions which might be worth a look. I have had a quick look at them and most seemed to be good. I think all of them were free or at least had a free version.

Sensory App House Ltd	This company has a range of apps for a variety of pupils I have had a look at some. The magma one is like a lava lamp and it suggests you can stream it to a smart tv. The painting one looked good. Definitely worth a look for those with sensory issues Look out for: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Sensory Magma ● Sensory Speak Up – Vocalize ● Sensory Painting ● Peeking Musicians ● Sensory CineFx – Fun Effects 	‘Sensory App House Ltd’ https://www.sensoryapphouse.com/
Edujoy entertainment	Educational games to develop and reinforce skills of visual and spatial perception. Useful for all ages. Check out the website before going to app store for a bit more information on the different games.	Kids Play Visual Games https://edujoygames.com/
Learn to Write Letter and Words	Designed to help learners trace letters, numbers and words. This was really nice with some great effects on the words once you had overtraced. For those reluctant to handwrite this might be a fun way to practise.	Writing Wizard – Handwriting https://lescapadou.com/
Duck Duck Moose	A range of apps for pupils of different abilities. Includes maths games, nursery rhymes, racing games and many more. Again check out the website for an idea of what they offer. The ones I looked at seemed to be worth a try.	Duck Duck Moose LLC http://www.duckduckmoose.com/
