Hello again all you lovely Language Group children,

I wonder what you have all been up to this week? I am going to try and guess.....have you been on your bike or scooter maybe? Or out for a walk? Perhaps you've been having fun in the garden. Whatever you've been doing I hope you enjoyed some sunshine. I have been taking Chester to the UEA every day where he is still enjoying some swimming. Today he decided to follow some ducks that were swimming in the river. Of course, they could swim much faster than him, and eventually he got a bit tired and had to head to the riverbank, but I think he desperately wanted to play with them. Do you think a duck would want to play with a dog? No, I don't think so either.

I went into school this week and we started the day with Joe Wicks. Have you tried that yet? My goodness , it is a very energetic way to start the day. It's a bit like when we do Mrs Spence's 31 seconds of Sweden star jumps, only it lasts much longer. If you feel a bit restless during the day, you could always ask someone to time you for 31 seconds, and count how many star jumps you manage. I know that you are all much faster than me, and can do a lot more than I can.

We would normally have been enjoying some gardening this term, so I was wondering whether you have had a chance to plant any seeds at home? I have planted some sunflower seeds, and they are just starting to shoot above the soil. I took some photographs as I was doing it, Henry was helping too. As they grow, I will keep taking pictures, and we can see which one grows the tallest. Below are the photos that I took, and I wonder whether you can put them in the correct order of how I did it.

There are some new activities for you to try this week in the Language Group folder. I know you will also have some from your class teachers, so don't feel that you have to do everything. I may be calling some of you this week on the telephone for a quick chat, just to say hello. If I don't talk to you this week, I will talk to you the following week, and if you don't want to talk to me that's fine too.

Have a lovely week everybody, and we all miss you very much.

From Mrs Beveridge
