Headteacher's daily blog

Date: Friday 3rd April 2020

Dear all,

I hope you all had a good day yesterday. Don't forget that new year group learning blogs will not be uploaded until after the Easter holidays, but we have put together, under the Easter holiday ideas tab (having clicked the 'Children / Home learning' green tab) a page of activities you might be like to try. There is a separate page for Reception pupils under the same tab. We hope you enjoy the challenges!

All the staff wish everyone a good Easter holiday, some from their homes and others from being on the rota to continue work in school. This afternoon we are trying to have a short Zoom staff meeting to see how we are all getting on - wish us luck getting to grips with the new technology!

One thing I love about any holiday is the chance to play some board games or card games. I came across this link which you might find useful if you have forgotten the rules for some fun family favourites. Card games

Favourite board games in our house include: Ticket to Ride, Azul, Scrabble, Quirkle and Monopoly. What are your favourites?

Finally, attached to this blog is a list of helpful organisations for families who may be struggling at this time.

Wishing you all the best,

Mr Henery
