

Aaaarrrrgggghhhh!	Pirate catch phrase of grumbling or disgust
Ahoy!	Hello!
Ahoy, Matey	Hello, my friend!
Ahoy, Me Hearties!	Hello, my friends, crew members, etc.; addressed to group
All Hand Hoy!	Everyone get on deck!
Avast Ye	Pay attention and check this out!
Aye	Yes
Aye, Aye	A crew member says this to the Captain, meaning "I will get that done right away!"
Batten Down The Hatches	Tie everything down and put stuff away for a coming storm.
Blow me down!	Phrase of amazement or shock
Booty	A treasure
Bounty	A reward for capturing a known criminal, such as a pirate
Chantey	Song sung together by sailors or pirates in unison, while they work
Chase	A vessel that is being pursued
Coffer	The treasure chest
Crow's Nest	A small lookout platform near the mast to see long distances
Cutlass	A thick, heavy and rather short sword blade for pirates
Fire in the Hole	Warning given to crew before a cannon is fired
Flogging	Severe beating of a person
Galley	Flat ship propelled manually by oars
Gangplank	Removable ramp between the pier and ship
Grog	Rum or liquor diluted by water
Hands	Crew members or sailors of a ship
Hang 'Em from the Yardarm	Type of punishment served to a prisoner
Head	Potty or toilet on a pirate ship!
Hearties	Friends, fellow comrades or sailors
Heave Ho	Put your weight and muscle into it
Heave To	Stop!!
Jacob's Ladder	A rope ladder used to climb aboard a boat
Jolly Roger	Black pirate flag with white skull and crossbones
Lad, lass, lassie	A kid or young person

Landlubber	An inexperienced or clumsy person who doesn't have any sailing skills
Lookout	The pirate who keeps watch for land or oncoming ships
Loot	Stolen money or belongings
Maroon	Leave someone stranded on a deserted island with no supplies, which was a common punishment for any crew members who disrespected or dishonored the Captain
Marooned	To be abandoned with no food, drink, or possessions
Mutiny	When crew gang up against the Captain of the ship or other authority
Old Salt	Experienced pirate or sailor
Pieces of eight	Spanish coins in pirate treasures
Pillage	Rob, ransack or plunder
Plunder	Take booty or burglarize
Poop deck	(Not the toilet!) This is a part of the ship above the Captain's headquarters at the farthest point back
Rum	Pirate's favorite alcoholic beverage
Run a Rig	Play a joke or a trick on someone
Run a Shot Across the Bow	Warning shot given to another boat's Captain
Sail, Ho!	A warning that another ship is in view
Savvy?	A question asking, "Do you get it?" or "Do you understand?"
Scallywag	A kidding type of word that a superior pirate might call one of the rookie pirates
Scourge of the 7 Seas	Pirate known as the worst kind
Seadog	A veteran sailor or old pirate
Sea Legs	When a sailor adjusts his balance from riding on a boat for a long time
Shark Bait	This is what you become after you walk the plank
Shipshape	The ship is managed and clean, everything is under control
Shiver Me Timbers!	A surprised or shocked expression
Sink Me!	Another expression of surprise
Spyglass	Telescope
Thar She Blows!	Whale sighting
Walk the Plank	Prisoner is ordered to walk off the board overlapping the ocean, which results in drowning and presumably a meet-up with Davy Jones Locker.
Weigh Anchor and Hoist the Mizzen!	An order to the crew to pull up the anchor and get this ship sailing!

Ye	You
Yellow Jack	When a ship flies a yellow flag, it indicates the presence of an ill crew member, such as yellow fever. But this was also a trick that smart pirates used to avoid becoming the target of another ship.
Yo Ho Ho!	A cheery expression to get someone's attention