Headteacher's daily blog

Date: Thursday 2nd April 2020

Dear all,

I hope the first day of your Easter holidays goes well. The school is open to a very small number of children of critical workers. The office will not be manned all day and it would be appreciated if you could ring only in an emergency and before 11 a.m. If you have specific questions, please send an email to office@cringleford.norfolk.sch.uk as emails will be checked remotely. We will try to respond to these as quickly as possible.

An email has been sent out to parents in Reception and Years 1 and 2 to explain that a new government voucher scheme for Free School Meals after the Easter holiday only applies to those who are eligible for free school meals and not to the vast majority who receive Universal Infant Free School Meals. If you think you may be entitled to Free School Meals and not have claimed them before it is still possible to apply for Free School Meals by completing a simple form. Your details would then be accessed and checked. Below is a link to the form:

As I mentioned yesterday, new year group learning blogs will not be uploaded until after the Easter holidays, but we have put together, under the Easter holiday ideas tab (having clicked the 'Children / Home learning' green tab) a page of activities you might be like to try. There is a separate page for Reception pupils under the same tab. We hope you enjoy the challenges!

Wishing you all the best,

Mr Henery
