

Cringleford Home Learning

Headteacher's daily blog

Date: Monday 4th May 2020

Dear all,

I hope you all had a good weekend. I know that most families have had a phone call from a staff member over the last fortnight and this has definitely helped to give us a better understanding about how the children are engaging with home learning. I think a lot of people in general found last week quite a challenging one, perhaps struggling to maintain motivation now that lockdown has gone on for a number of weeks. I really hope this Monday your child can start a new week with a fresh and determined mindset! The knowledge that it is a four day teaching week might help....

Without wanting to sound like Delia Smith at Carrow Road a few years ago, 'Come on children of Cringleford Primary - give Mums and Dads the best possible start to the week and really try your best with your home learning this week.' Hopefully, the rallying cry will work!

Wishing you all the best,

Mr Henery

P.S - the following music video was compiled by a large number of churches in the UK and is very uplifting:
