Headteacher's daily blog

Date: Wednesday 20th May 2020

Dear all,

The responses from the critical worker survey - sent out to parents of children in Years 2-5 - have to be in by 10 a.m. today so further planning details can go ahead for next half term. Further information will be sent out tomorrow and/or Friday. There are so many factors to consider and risk assessments to complete that what is certain is that we would not be able to receive back any pupils, apart from children of critical workers, on June 1st. A phased return for Reception and Year 1 is likely to start from June 8th. It may be possible for Year 6 pupils to return at the end of the first week back after half term. I expect to be able to share exact dates before the end of the week when we have all the responses back.

Please find attached an updated leaflet from Norfolk Constabulary and the Norfolk Library Service's most recent newsletter is below:

Wishing you all the best,
