

Literacy

(focus on using phonic skills to read and write simple sentences)

Reading traditional tales from different cultures.

Reading alternative versions of a story.

Writing gingerbread man stories.

Daily phonic sessions – reading and writing words and captions/sentences

Regular individual and guided reading

Repeated phrases

Communication and Language

(focus on asking and answering questions)

Contributing to circle time

Sharing news

Partner work related to topic

Using new language learned from stories studied in their own play.

Noticing changes in plants and talking about these.

Understanding the world

(focus on noticing and explaining changes)

Investigating the term ‘waterproof’

Making bridges strong.

How do plants grow?

Stories from other cultures.

Expressive Art and Design

Role play – garden centre, castles, builders yard,

Story related small world, puppets and role play

Making gingerbread men, trolls,

Art from different cultures

Mask making for stories

Making beanstalks, bridges

Singing traditional nursery rhymes –learn some new ones we don’t know

Personal, Social and Emotional Development

Discuss issues raised from stories eg kindness, stealing,

Learning to work collaboratively and take account of others ideas

Respecting and caring for the world and living things

Acknowledging differences

Reception – Summer 1

A world of story

Launch- finding magical beans and giant footprints golden egg, big book etc

Landing- book day and party – dressup etc

Homework-to read regularly at home, practice

Mathematics

Measuring giant foot prints

Comparing and ordering sizes

Counting and sharing beans (halves doubles count by 2/5/10)

Money – adding and subtracting

3d shape – name and discuss properties, sort

Ordering numbers to 20

Physical

PE –gymnastics ctd Games and sports day

Physical challenge sessions-(focus on developing good control in large and small movements)

Developing an understanding of a healthy lifestyle

Daily handwriting activities to enhance fine motor skills

Daily access to outdoor area